Berlin Admits That French Hold Hill 44 Against Counter Attacks —Germans Desperately Strive to Take High Ground Above Kemmel

LONDON, May 16 .- Artillery battles of great intensity are reported to-day from the British and French Headquarters in France. Practically the entire British front from Flanders to the Somme is under heavy fire, with Haig's guns making vigorous

Paris reports a particularly heavy artillery combat in the Hailles-Caste sector, southeast of Amiens, near the positions occupied by American troops. It was in this neighborhood that the French yesterday reported the capture of a strongly fortified wood on the banks of the Avre River. A German raid west of Montdidier was repulsed by the French.

Following is the text of the report issued to-day by the British War

"Our troops raided the enemy's trenches last night in the neighhorhood of Gavrelle (northeast of Arras), and captured a few

"Beyond artillery activity on both sides at different points, par- w ticularly in the valleys of the Somme and Ancre Rivers, east of Arras and on the northern battle front, there is nothing further to report

The Germans have been striving desperately in the past few days to take high ground for the massing troops for a renewal of their offensive, and the recent French gains, though slight, have been of inestinable value
